Look, look, look, there's a baby!

On Friday 11th December, all of the rehearsing and preparing was finally over and it was time for the Nativity Show. Christchurch was packed as Nursery started the show with their poem, 'The Chubby Snowman'. Transition made everyone feel at home with the song, 'Welcome' and then the Nativity Play began. All of the children delivered their lines brilliantly and the story was told beautifully with a mixture of superb acting and lovely singing. It was the perfect way to welcome the holidays and remind us of the true meaning of Christmas. Coffee and mince pies afterwards gave the perfect start to the holidays. All the children should be congratulated on their contribution to a brilliant show. More pictures are on page 2.

Prep 1,2 and 3 visit the Puppet Theatre

On Wednesday 9th December, the Prep classes visited The Norwich Puppet Theatre. After an opportunity to look at some of the puppets from their shows, we got to work making our own puppets. There was a wide range of materials to use and we were given lots of ideas about how we could make everything from fairies to angels and pirates! It was a beautiful venue and we hope we can visit again to see one of their shows.
