Dear Parents

February Half Term Holiday

As a treat for working so hard since September I won't be setting specific homework this half term. However, please make sure your child continues reading for pleasure.

For those parents that would like their child to do some activities, please feel to keep a brief diary of things that you get up to over the holidays or use Sumdog to keep the maths skills up.

Have a wonderful half term holiday. I look forward to seeing you all nicely refreshed and ready for the second half of the Prep 3 year.

Kind Regards

Mr Iain Patterson
